ROOSEVELT MAY STOP HERE
MINUTES NEXT WEDNESDAY

Republicans Want Ex-Moose Chief to Stop As He Goes From Corbin to Louisville.

Local Republicans and others who have a curiosity to see him are interested in the possibility that ex-President Roosevelt may make a short address in Stanford next Wednesday afternoon. The man who made and mangled the Bull Moose party is scheduled for a speech at Corbin about one o'clock that afternoon, and his special train then will make a run for Louisville where it is reported, he will speak that night. Local Republicans and admirers of Roosevelt are making an effort to have his train stopped at Stanford, that he make a few minutes' address to the voters on behalf of Hughes, who, together with Taft, Barnes, Penrose, Smoot and others of the Old Guard Roosevelt, is supporting this year. Roosevelt would undoubtedly draw a large crowd for many would like to see just what he looks like.

Democratic Speaking Dates.
Congressman Harvey Helm goes to Junction City tonight where he will address the voters on behalf of Wilson and the ticket. He will undoubtedly be greeted by a large crowd for he is a great favorite there. He spoke at Warsaw, Gallatin county, Tuesday to a courtroom full of people, which was considered rather remarkable for a Tuesday crowd.

Democratic speakings are arousing much interest all over Lincoln county and extraordinarily good audiences are turning out. The feature this week was the maiden speech Thursday night of Harvey Wilkinson, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wilkinson, of this city, which was delivered at O. K. schoolhouse. Young Wilkinson has been acting as secretary to Congressman Helm for about a year, and though a mere youth, he made a crackling speech and gave the voters of that part of the county the old gospel of Democracy in a way which would have done credit to a man much his senior in years. He "made good" right off the reel, speaking for about 40 minutes, and greatly pleased all who heard him. Oliver Singleton presided at the meeting and introduced Mr. Wilkinson. About 75 voters were out at the speaking. Other speaking dates which have been announced by the local campaign committee are as follows:

Moreland—Wednesday, Oct. 18, 7 p. m., K. S. Alcorn, T. J. Hill, Jr., Bee Lick—Thursday, Oct. 19, 7 p. m., K. S. Alcorn, W. S. Burch, W. B. Hansford.

25 Cents Destroys Your Dandruff and Stops Falling Hair

Save Your Hair! Make It Thick Wavy and Beautiful—Try This

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is sure evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—the awful scrub. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which is not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on the lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance, an incomparable gloss and softness; but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.

GARRARD FARM BRINGS $123.50

Col. I. M. Dunn, of Danville, handled a big land deal this week when he sold J. C. Rankin's farm to G. V. Pence. The farm is located in Garrard county, about nine miles from Danville, and is two miles long and one mile wide. It is known as the Mort Robinson farm, and the tract sold contains a fraction over 142 acres. The consideration was $123.50. This makes the third time that Col. JIM REYNOLDS SELLS FARM

J. M. Reynolds, one of the best known farmers of the Waynesburg section, sold his farm of 108 acres a mile and a half south of Waynesburg last week to Mrs. Mintie Blair, of Benham, Ky. Mr. Reynolds received $5,000 for the property, netting him a nice profit on it. The sale was made through the real estate firm of Day & Stamper, of Eubank. Mr. Reynolds is now advertising for buy another farm. He would like to secure a place in the West End of the county, if the right sort of proposition can be found.

Pepples Coming Back

Local Man Fails To Get Good Place Politicians Promised Him

John C. Pepples, who went from here a few weeks ago to Eddyville, where the state's branch penitentiary is located, under promise of Gov. Stanley that he would be appointed superintendent of the prison farm, returned to Lincoln late last week, hunting for a farm to rent so as to return here with his family. He found when he reached Eddyville, that instead of being farm superintendent at $100 according to promise, he was merely an over-guard, and drawing a guard's salary of $75 a month upon which he and his family cannot live. Both Mr. Pepples and Representative W. G. Gooch, who secured his appointment from Stanley, as well as his host of other friends, feel that he has not been treated exactly right. Mr. Pepples is a successful and up-to-date farmer in every way and splendidly qualified for the place of Farm Superintendent which he and his friends thought he would get.

Dr. Henry Williams, one of Shelbyville's finest young men, accompanied his aunt, Mrs. Mollie Burgin home, and packed and stored her furniture, and took her back with him to reside this winter and probably longer. Mrs. Burgin has been a resident of our town for several years and has many warm friends who deeply regret to give her up for even a short time. She will be missed in the Christian church, the Ladies' Aid and social circles, and all join in wishing that she will again come back to live with us, and a hearty welcome will await her, from old and young.

Mr. and Mrs. McWhorter went down to Mrs. Robert Gaines' Saturday, where they were joined by about thirty-three near relatives who gathered there to give Mr. McWhorter a birthday surprise. The members all brought good things to eat and the crowd assembled in the yard and the edibles were served to each guest in small trays. To say Mr. McWhorter enjoyed it, would but feebly express his emotion and his gratitude and love goes out to all who tried to give him a bright day.

Mr. J. R. Riggsby and family, who have been living on the Fish farm near town, left Thursday to locate in Indiana. This is an excellent family and we wish them prosperity and health in their new home.

Mr. Cherry has done a great deal towards beautifying our city and is a fine booster.

W. J. Romans, of Lancaster has again taken charge of the opera house in that city and will make it one of the best in Central Kentucky. He has booked Coburn's minstrel for Saturday, which attraction will make a good "opener" for the house. Mr. Romans is one of the live wires of Harrodsburg.

Colonel Thomas J. Smith, of Richmond, died very suddenly in Cincinnati Tuesday night. Death was due to heart trouble. Mr. Smith was State Banking Commissioner under Governor McCreary and has served as an exalted ruler of the Elks. He is survived by his wife and two children. Funeral services were held at Richmond Friday.

L. O. Martin, of Lilly Dale, Tenn., who came to market here Monday with a nice bunch of cattle, left his little five-year-old daughter, ill with diphtheria when he left home and was quite uneasy about her although she had improved a great deal. His other children had been treated with anti-toxin to prevent them from having this dread children's malady.

O. P. Newland was down, as usual from Burnside, to attend court day market here. He says that he will be back again on Nov. 7th to vote for Wilson and Marshall. Forty-four years ago he cast his vote for Tilden and Hendricks and not once in that time has he ever voted anything but the straight Democratic ticket which is his record to be proud of. Mr. Newland says that he personally knows several life-long Republicans in the section of Pulaski where he is staying who are going to cast their first Democratic votes in a life-time for Woodrow Wilson this year. They tell Mr. Newland that Wilson has so far kept this country out of the world war and they are afraid in these critical times to take a chance on changing when so much is at stake.

Is Bearing Her Cross

Mrs. Johnson In Jail Here, Says She's Following Her Master

Mrs. J. E. Johnson, of the Waynesburg section of the county, in jail here serving a seven day sentence for failure to send her young children to school, and thereby violating the compulsory attendance law of Kentucky, has written a message to the people of Stanford and Lincoln county, which she is desirous of having the I. J. publish. Mrs. Johnson says that she is an evangelist of the Church of God. She writes as follows:

A Trial of Faith

This is the victory that overcomes the world, even your faith.—I. John, 5:4.

Dear Reader—While sitting here in these dark prison walls, I can realize more fully what Jesus meant when he said, "My people shall be tried as by fire." Today I am going through the fiery trials for Jesus' sake. Because I love Jesus and desire to do his will, I am here. Only we, who have tasted of the cup of suffering know what Jesus meant when he said, "If we suffer with Him we shall also reign with Him." Dear people, I never knew what suffering with Him really meant; I never knew just how great was His suffering; when He was paying the great debt for me, never did I realize how great the price was that was paid for my eternal redemption until I took my precious curly-haired baby in my arms and pressed his sweet lips to mine and looked down into his sweet baby face, perhaps for the last time, and turned my face from him to follow Jesus. Oh, dear reader, I could tell you what the great loving Father above suffered for me. When He unbosomed His dear and only Son and sent Him down here in this cruel world to be buffeted and spit on and mocked and was taken before the council and even put to death, no wonder the whole earth shook and the rocks rent; no wonder the world was draped in darkness; no wonder all creation mourned. No, I don't wonder why my Heavenly Father turned His blessed face and refused to look upon it. The scene was too great, and today, since I have tasted of that great suffering, my soul is made to cry out, "O, Lord, how awfully ashamed I am that I helped to cause that great suffering on the cross, by transgressing God's Holy law. But beneath all my suffering there's a deep settled peace that I found at the foot of that cross, when I said, "Lord, I am so sorry I ever sinned and caused you this suffering." I said, "I will bear the cross now, Father, the rest of my days and I have carried it for eight long years and today I find myself still under it. I have no desire to lay it down, for when I lay down the cross I lay down the crown. I fully realize that the crown which I am now carrying will exchange at the end of the race for a crown of eternal life. I am not tired of the way, for it grows brighter each day I walk in it. Dear reader, I wish I could see you face to face, for I have found the pearl of great price. God said, "Come buy of me gold that shall be tried." Praise His dear name, I have found that gold that has been tried. It will stand the test of the judgment. So pray for my babies that are at home without father or mother. I may see them again God only knows. God said they would take us before rulers and before the council and commit us to prison, yea, even kill us, and think they were doing God's service; but may the Good Lord bless them, for they know not what they do. I am more determined to go on with Jesus than ever before.

Your loving friend, in Jesus, waiting for his coming.

MRS. J. E. JOHNSON.

One of the most unique gatherings ever held in Georgetown was an "old people's meeting" in the Christian church. There was a man present who has been a member of the church for 72 years. Over 50 present had been members for over 40 years.

These were asked to come forward, and while the choir sang "Blessed Be the Tie That Binds" the 250 old people shook hands.

The entire membership has been divided into ten routes, each to be visited by a committee, that will solicit every member and friend of the church to make a systematic weekly contribution to the support of the church in all of its departments, using the duplex envelope for offerings. It is urged that every member of the church who is not on the visiting committee remain at home Sunday afternoon. The work is expected to be completed in two or three hours.
